

To remove Klove and other Christian broadcasts from the air is the same as sucking the air out of our lungs. KLove is instrumental in my children's education just as their everyday schooling is. Our community is so much better off for these Christian broadcasts. They represent all that America stands for...family, faith, and security.